-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

1. Information Disclosure Statement submitted by applicant on 07/07/2004 is being considered by examiner. See attached PTO-1449.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1-4, 8, 13, 16-17 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Shaffer (US Patent No. 6,826,599).

As per claim 1, Shaffer discloses a method of controlling a cache of distributed data, comprising: dynamically determining [maintaining a dynamic list for each CF values (column 7, lines 55-57)] whether and/or where to cache the distributed data based on characteristics of the data, characteristics of the source of the data and characteristics of the cache so as to provide an indication of whether to cache the data; and selectively caching the data based on the indication [to determine whether to cache the object (column 4, line 10); using various combination of a plurality of metrics including access or download time for the object, accesses for the object, the size of the object, bandwidth required to download the object and a number of object requests (column 4, lines 14-48); other metrics not described are also within the scope of the invention (column 7, lines 45-46)].

As per claim 2, Shaffer discloses that the characteristics of the data comprise how often the data is accessed [number of accesses for the object].

As per claim 3, Shaffer discloses that the characteristics of the source of the data comprise how long it takes to recompute the data and/or how long it takes to replicate the data [size of the object].

As per claim 4, Shaffer discloses that the characteristics of the cache comprise how long it takes to retrieve a cached item [download time].

As per claim 8, Shaffer discloses that the cache comprises a disk cache and wherein caching the data comprises offloading cached memory contents to the disk cache [cache memory 208 may comprise one or more nonvolatile disk drive (column 6, lines 31-35)].

As per claims 13, 16-17 and 20, claims 13, 16-17 and 20 encompass the same scope of the invention as those of claims 1-4, and 8. Therefore, claims 13, 16-17 and 20 are rejected for the same reasons as stated above with respect to claims 1-4 and 8.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 5-7, 9-12, 14-15 and 18-19 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. See attached PTO-892.

6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Nasser G. Moazzami whose telephone number is (571) 272-4195. The examiner can normally be reached on 7:00AM-5:30PM.
